

Consulate General
of the Federal Republic of Germany
Chicago

Wednesday, 6th June 2018 6:00 pm - 8:00 pm at the DANK Haus Consular Information Night

The German Consulate Chicago continues the tradition of offering another informative evening and insight into the consular, legal world.

Staff of the Legal and Consular Section is giving the fourth information reception for Germans and German Americans to meet the consular staff and learn more about Consular services. All participants are invited to stay for some 'gemütliche' afterwords with drinks and snacks. The event will be mainly in German language but anybody is welcome.

Topics covered:

- How do I register my child's birth in Germany?
- Do I have to register my U.S. marriage in Germany?
- Can I change my name here in the U.S. and get a German passport with this name?
- Do I have to have my U.S. divorce acknowledged in Germany?
- I made an inheritance in Germany. How do I claim my inheritance?
- Am I a German citizen, and how can I apply for a German passport?
- Can I become a U.S. citizen and still remain a German citizen?
- I used to be German and lost German citizenship when I became American. Can I become a German citizen, again?

Reservations are requested, online at

<https://bit.ly/2KqGMjH>

No registration fee !

Light reception to follow, attendees are encouraged to bring materials needing clarification.

DANK Haus German American Cultural Center
4740 N Western Ave, Chicago IL 60625
773.561.9181
Free Parking - MB Financial Bank, Western & Gunnison

